

ESTIMATOR

Location: Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire
Salary: Negotiable, dependant on experience
Sector: Civil Engineering

An opportunity has arisen for the appointment of a Civil Engineering Estimator based at our Regional Office in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire.

The position offers appropriately qualified people the opportunity to exercise their skills in the preparation of analytical cost estimates and commercial tenders from receipt of enquiry through to tender submission.

Main Responsibilities

- Measure and production of BoQ in accordance with the tenders Method of Measurement.
- Preparation and management of the tender sub-contract supply chain requirements.
- Preparation of accurate and competitive cost estimates for a wide variety of civil engineering works in accordance with the company's procedures, targets and objectives.
- Preparation and presentation of tender bid to Directors for tender assessment and settlement.
- Attending pre and post tender meetings with Clients Project Team Preparation of tender information for handover to Contracts Delivery Team.

Role requirements

- Minimum two years estimating experience working in a variety of civil engineering sectors such as infrastructure, highway works, partnering and framework contracts, waste and renewable energy sectors.
- Experience and knowledge of working with different forms of Contract.
- Experienced and technically competent in the use of Microsoft Office software packages. Experience with Conquest estimating system and Asta Powerproject desirable.
- Ability to work to tight deadlines and be able to demonstrate excellent time management skills.
- Educated to degree standard or similar

The Company offers attractive remuneration packages and the opportunity for people with ambition to further their career and contribute to the Company's continued growth.

Please send your full CV through to j.westerman@breheny.co.uk or for an informal discussion with regard to the advertised role please contact Simon Burnside on 01480 459341.